WILMINGTON, Del., Feb. 10, 2026 - DuPont (NYSE: DD) announced its financial results⁽¹⁾ for the fourth quarter and full year ended December 31, 2025 and initiated financial guidance for the first quarter and full year 2026.

“Our full year results capped a year of strong, disciplined execution” said Lori Koch, DuPont Chief Executive Officer. “Our teams delivered against our commitments in a dynamic macro environment, driving organic growth, margin expansion, double-digit adjusted EPS growth, and strong cash flow generation.”

“Exiting the year with this momentum, we are well positioned to continue advancing our strategic priorities centered on driving growth and delivering consistent performance to create value for shareholders, customers and our employees,” Koch concluded.

Fourth Quarter 2025 Consolidated Results⁽¹⁾

Dollars in millions, unless noted	4Q'25	4Q'24	Change vs. 4Q'24	Organic Sales ⁽²⁾ vs. 4Q'24

(1) Results and cash flows are presented on a continuing operations basis, now reflecting the Electronics and Aramids businesses as discontinued operations. See page 8 for further information, including the basis of presentation included in this release.

(2) Organic sales, operating EBITDA, operating EBITDA margin, adjusted EPS, transaction-adjusted free cash flow and transaction-adjusted free cash flow conversion are non-GAAP measures and only reflect continuing operations. See page 9 for further discussion, including a definition of significant items. Reconciliation to the most directly comparable GAAP measure, including details of significant items begins on page 16 of this communication.

(3) Effective in the fourth quarter of 2025, following the separation of the Electronics business on November 1, 2025, the Company made changes to its management and reporting structure creating two new reportable segments: Healthcare & Water Technologies and Diversified Industrials.

Net sales

- Net sales were flat as a 1% decrease in volume was offset by a 1% currency benefit. Price was flat year-over-year. Fourth quarter net sales included an approximately $30 million, or 2%, headwind from the order timing shift into the third quarter related to system cut-over activities in advance of the planned electronics separation.
- 3% organic sales growth in Healthcare & Water Technologies; 4% organic sales decline in Diversified Industrials.

GAAP Loss from continuing operations

- GAAP Loss/GAAP EPS from continuing operations improved on higher segment earnings and the absence of prior year losses related to interest rate swaps.

Operating EBITDA

- Operating EBITDA increased on favorable mix and cost productivity, partially offset by growth investments.

Adjusted EPS

- Adjusted EPS increased on higher segment earnings and lower interest expense, partially offset by a higher tax rate.

Cash provided by operating activities from continuing operations

- Cash provided by operating activities from continuing operations in the quarter of $87 million, capital expenditures of $87 million and separation-related transaction cost and other payments of $228 million resulted in transaction-adjusted free cash flow and related conversion of $228 million and 118%, respectively.

Fourth Quarter 2025 Segment Highlights

Healthcare & Water Technologies⁽³⁾

Dollars in millions, unless noted	4Q'25	4Q'24	Change vs. 4Q'24	Organic Sales ⁽²⁾ vs. 4Q'24
Net sales	$821	$790	4%	3%
Operating EBITDA	$255	$246	4%
Operating EBITDA margin %	31.1%	31.1%	-

Net sales

- Net sales increased 4% on organic sales growth of 3% and a currency benefit of 1%. Fourth quarter net sales included an approximately $15 million, or 2%, headwind from the order timing shift into the third quarter due to separation-related activities primarily in Water Technologies.
 - Healthcare Technologies sales up mid-single digits on an organic basis on broad-based growth led by medical packaging and medical devices.
 - Water Technologies sales up low-single digits on an organic basis primarily due to strength in industrial water markets.

Operating EBITDA

- Operating EBITDA increased on organic growth and productivity, partially offset by growth investments.
- Operating EBITDA margin of 31.1% was flat year-over-year.

Diversified Industrials⁽³⁾

Dollars in millions, unless noted	4Q'25	4Q'24	Change vs. 4Q'24	Organic Sales ⁽²⁾ vs. 4Q'24

Operating EBITDA	$197	$193	2%
Operating EBITDA margin %	22.6%	21.5%	110 bps

Net sales

- Net sales decreased 3% as organic sales declines of 4% were partially offset by a 1% benefit from currency. Fourth quarter net sales included an approximately $15 million, or 2%, headwind from the order timing shift into the third quarter due to separation-related activities primarily in Industrial Technologies.
 - Building Technologies sales down high-single digits on an organic basis from ongoing weakness in construction markets.
 - Industrial Technologies sales down low-single digits on an organic basis as strength in aerospace was offset by weakness in printing and packaging markets.

Operating EBITDA

- Operating EBITDA increased on favorable mix and cost productivity.
- Operating EBITDA margin of 22.6% increased 110 basis points.

Overview

DuPont de Nemours, Inc. (“DuPont”) completed the previously announced separation of its Electronics business (the “Electronics Separation”) into an independent public company, Qnity Electronics, Inc. (“Qnity”), by way of the distribution to DuPont's stockholders of record as of October 22, 2025 of all the issued and outstanding common stock of Qnity on November 1, 2025 (the “Qnity Distribution”). As a result, beginning in the fourth quarter of 2025, the financial results of the divested Electronics business are reflected in DuPont's Consolidated Financial Statements as discontinued operations, along with comparative periods.

On August 29, 2025, DuPont announced a definitive agreement to sell the aramids business (the “Aramids Divestiture”) to Arclin a portfolio company of a TJC LP, (“TJC”) affiliate, in return for pre-tax cash proceeds of approximately $1.2 billion, subject to customary transaction adjustments, a note from TJC in the principal amount of $300 million and a minority equity interest (the “Equity Consideration”) valued at $325 million in the future Arclin holding company that will hold the Arclin global materials business and the aramids business being divested. The transaction is expected to close around the end of the first quarter 2026, subject to customary closing conditions and receipt of regulatory approvals. As a result, beginning in the third quarter of 2025, the financial results of the aramids business being divested are reflected in DuPont's Consolidated Financial Statements as discontinued operations, along with comparative periods.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-looking Statements

Certain statements in this release may be considered forward-looking statements, within the meaning of the federal securities laws, including Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Forward-looking statements often contain words such as “expect”, “anticipate”, “intend”, “plan”, “believe”, “seek”, “see”, “will”, “would”, “target”, “outlook”, “stabilization”, “confident”, “preliminary”, “initial”, “continue”, “may”, “could”, “project”, “estimate”, “forecast” and similar expressions and variations or negatives of these words. All statements, other than statements of historical fact, are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements address matters that are, to varying degrees, uncertain and subject to risks, uncertainties, and assumptions, many of which are beyond DuPont's control, that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in any forward-looking statements.

Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future results. Some of the important factors that could cause DuPont's actual results to differ materially from those projected in any such forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to (i) the ability to realize the intended benefits of the Electronics Separation and Qnity Distribution, including achievement of the intended tax treatment; contractual allocation to, and assumption by Qnity of certain liabilities, including certain legacy liabilities with respect to PFAS; and the possibility of disputes, litigation or unanticipated costs in connection with the Electronics Separation and Distribution; (ii) the ability to timely effect, if at all, the Aramids Divestiture and the impact on DuPont's balance sheet, financial condition and future results of operations; (iii) risks and costs related to the impact of the arrangement to share future eligible PFAS costs by and among DuPont, Corteva and Chemours, including the outcome of pending or future litigation related to PFAS or PFOA, which includes personal injury claims and natural resource damages claims; the extent and cost of ongoing and potential future remediation obligations; and changes in laws and regulations applicable to PFAS chemicals; (iv) the failure to realize expected benefits and effectively manage and achieve anticipated synergies and operational efficiencies in connection with the Electronics Separation, the Aramids Divestiture and completed and future, if any, divestitures, mergers, acquisitions, and other portfolio management, productivity and infrastructure actions; (v) risks and uncertainties that are outside the Company's control but adversely impact the overall environment in which DuPont, its customers and/or its suppliers operate, including changes in economic, political, regulatory, international trade, geopolitical, military conflicts, capital markets and other external conditions, including pandemics and responsive actions, as well as natural and other disasters or weather-related events; (vi) the ability to offset increases in cost of inputs, including raw materials, energy and logistics; (vii) the risks and uncertainties associated with continuing or expanding trade disputes or restrictions and responsive actions, new or increased tariffs or export controls including on exports to China of U.S.-regulated products and technology; (viii) other risks to DuPont's business and operations, including the risk of impairment; (ix) risks and uncertainties in connection with completing the $2 billion share buyback authorization DuPont announced on November 3, 2025, including timeline, associated costs and the possibility that the authorization may be suspended or discontinued prior to completion; and (x) other risk factors discussed in DuPont's most recent annual report on Form 10-K, and subsequent quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and current reports on Form 8-K filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

Unlisted factors may present significant additional obstacles to the realization of forward-looking statements. Consequences of material differences in results as compared with those anticipated in the forward-looking statements could include, among other things, business or supply chain disruption, operational problems, financial loss, legal liability to third parties and similar risks, any of which could have a material adverse effect on DuPont's consolidated financial condition, results of operations, credit rating or liquidity. Undue reliance should not be placed on forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date they are made. DuPont assumes no obligation to publicly provide revisions or updates to any forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise, should circumstances change, except as otherwise required by securities and other applicable laws.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

Unless otherwise indicated, all financial metrics presented reflect continuing operations only.

This communication includes information that does not conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”) and are considered non-GAAP measures. Management uses these measures internally for planning, forecasting and evaluating the performance of the Company, including allocating resources. DuPont’s management believes these non-GAAP financial measures are useful to investors because they provide additional information related to the ongoing performance of DuPont to offer a more meaningful comparison related to future results of operations. These non-GAAP financial measures supplement disclosures prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP, and should not be viewed as an alternative to U.S. GAAP. Furthermore, such non-GAAP measures may not be consistent with similar measures provided or used by other companies. Reconciliations for these Non-GAAP measures to U.S. GAAP are provided in the Selected Financial Information and Non-GAAP Measures starting on page 15. Non-GAAP measures included in this communication are defined below. The Company has not provided forward-looking U.S. GAAP financial measures or a reconciliation of forward-looking non-GAAP financial measures to the most comparable U.S. GAAP financial measures on a forward-looking basis because the Company is unable to predict with reasonable certainty the ultimate outcome of certain future events. These events include, among others, the impact of portfolio changes, including asset sales, mergers, acquisitions, and divestitures; contingent liabilities related to litigation, environmental and indemnifications matters; impairments and discrete tax items. These items are uncertain, depend on various factors, and could have a material impact on U.S. GAAP results for the guidance period.

Key Terms

Significant Items

Significant items are items that arise outside the ordinary course of business for the Company, and beginning in the first quarter 2025, includes items for nonconsolidated affiliates, that the Company’s management believes may cause misinterpretation of underlying business and investment performance, both historical and future, based on a combination of some or all of the item’s size, unusual nature and infrequent occurrence. Management classifies as significant items certain costs and expenses associated with integration and separation activities related to transformational acquisitions and divestitures as they are considered unrelated to ongoing business performance. Management believes the update to the definition of significant items to include those related to nonconsolidated affiliates reflects a more accurate measure of the ongoing performance of the investment. There were no significant items associated with nonconsolidated affiliates recorded for the three and twelve month periods ended December 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024.

Future Reimbursable Indirect Costs

Indirect costs, such as those related to corporate and shared service functions allocated to the separated Electronics business, the divested Delrin® business and the Aramids business, do not meet the criteria for discontinued operations and are reported within continuing operations in all respective periods presented. The Company has, is, will or expects to be reimbursed in accordance with the applicable transition service agreements (“TSAs”) for the portion of indirect costs related to activities the Company is, will or expects to undertake on a transitional basis to support a) the divested Delrin® business, b) Qnity not beyond year end 2027 for services and 2040 for site leases and, c) the Aramids Business post the intended Aramids Divestiture, but not beyond 2028 (such indirect costs “Future Reimbursable Indirect Costs”). Services provided and costs reimbursed in accordance with the applicable TSAs include but are not limited to, costs associated with information technology services/support, product stewardship and regulatory support, facilities services, and shared property lease costs.

Future Reimbursable Indirect Costs do not meet the criteria for discontinued operations and therefore are included in both GAAP Net Income from Continuing Operations and in GAAP Cash provided by operating activities-continuing operations for all periods presented. Future Reimbursable Indirect Costs are excluded from Adjusted Earnings, Operating EBITDA and beginning in the fourth quarter 2025, from Transaction-Adjusted Free Cash Flow, each defined below. Such indirect costs that are not subject to future reimbursement are reported within continuing operations in Corporate & Other and are included within Adjusted Earnings, Operating EBITDA, and Cash provided by operating activities-continuing operations.

Corporate DDOB Remediation Costs

Corporate DDOB Remediation Costs are environmental remediation costs, including certain investigate, remediate and restoration costs, associated with discontinued or divested operations, businesses or product lines (“Corporate DDOB Remediation Costs”). Subsequent to the spin-off of Qnity and beginning with the fourth quarter of 2025, DDOB Remediation Costs are excluded from Adjusted Earnings and Operating EBITDA, as defined below, to provide better insight into the underlying business performance of the Company. This update was applied for all periods presented.

Non-GAAP Measure Definitions

Organic Sales

Organic Sales is defined as net sales excluding the impacts of currency and portfolio.

Adjusted Earnings

Adjusted Earnings is defined as income from continuing operations excluding the after-tax impact of significant items, after-tax impact of amortization expense of intangibles, the after-tax impact of non-operating pension / other post employment benefits ("OPEB") credits / costs, Future Reimbursable Indirect Costs and Corporate DDOB Remediation Costs.

Adjusted Earnings is the numerator used in the calculation of Adjusted EPS, as well as the denominator in Adjusted Free Cash Flow Conversion.

Adjusted EPS

Adjusted EPS is defined as Adjusted Earnings per common share - diluted. Management estimates amortization expense in 2026 associated with intangibles to be about $270 million on a pre-tax basis, or approximately $0.50 per share.

Operating EBITDA, EBITDA Margin & Incremental Margin

The Company's measure of profit/loss for segment reporting purposes is Operating EBITDA as this is the manner in which the Company's chief operating decision maker ("CODM") assesses performance and allocates resources. The Company defines Operating EBITDA as earnings (i.e., "Income from continuing operations before income taxes") before interest, depreciation, amortization, non-operating pension / OPEB benefits / charges, and foreign exchange gains / losses, excluding Future Reimbursable Indirect Costs, Corporate DDOB Remediation Costs, and adjusted for significant items. Reconciliations of these measures are provided on the following pages.

Operating EBITDA Margin is defined as Operating EBITDA divided by Net Sales.

Incremental Margin is the change in Operating EBITDA divided by the change in Net Sales for the applicable period.

Adjusted Free Cash Flow & Adjusted Free Cash Flow Conversion

Adjusted Free Cash Flow is defined as cash provided by/used for operating activities from continuing operations less capital expenditures and excluding the impact of cash inflows/outflows that are unusual in nature and/or infrequent in occurrence that neither relate to the ordinary course of the Company's business nor reflect the Company's underlying business liquidity. As a result, Adjusted Free Cash Flow represents cash that is available to the Company, after investing in its asset base, to fund obligations using the Company's primary source of liquidity, cash provided by operating activities from continuing operations. Management believes Adjusted Free Cash Flow, even though it may be defined differently from other companies, is useful to investors, analysts and others to evaluate the Company's cash flow and financial performance, and it is an integral measure used in the Company's financial planning process. Management notes that there were no exclusions for items that are unusual in nature and/or infrequent in occurrence for the three and twelve-month periods ended December 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024.

Adjusted Free Cash Flow Conversion is defined as Adjusted Free Cash Flow divided by Adjusted Earnings. Management uses Adjusted Free Cash Flow Conversion as an indicator of our ability to convert earnings to cash.

Transaction Adjusted Free Cash Flow & Transaction Adjusted Free Cash Flow Conversion

Management believes supplemental non-GAAP financial measures including Transaction-Adjusted Free Cash Flow and Transaction-Adjusted Free Cash Flow Conversion (each defined below) provide an integral view of information on the Company's underlying business performance during this period of transformational change. Management believes the Electronics Separation and Aramids Divestiture collectively represent a significant transformational change for the Company and separation-related transaction cost payments impact comparability to the Company's continuing operations. Management believes Transaction-Adjusted Free Cash Flow, which may be defined differently from other companies, is useful to investors, analysts and others to evaluate the Company's cash flow and financial performance, and it is an integral measure used in the Company's financial planning process. These non-GAAP financial measures are not intended to represent residual cash flow for discretionary expenditures since other non-discretionary expenditures, such as mandatory debt service requirements, are not deducted from the measure.

Transaction-Adjusted Free Cash Flow is defined as cash provided by/used for operating activities from continuing operations less capital expenditures and removing the impact of separation-related transaction costs and other payment and cash inflows/outflows that are unusual in nature and/or infrequent in occurrence that neither relate to the ordinary course of the Company's business nor reflect the Company's underlying business liquidity.

Transaction-Adjusted Free Cash Flow Conversion is defined as Transaction-Adjusted Free Cash Flow excluding separation-related transaction costs, divided by Adjusted Earnings.

Separation-related transaction costs and other payments include cash outflows directly associated with the Electronics Separation and the Aramids Divestiture. These costs include advisor and banking fees, payments related to establishing a new capital structure (including fees associated with interest rate swaps), capital expenditures required to facilitate physical asset separation, restructuring payments associated with senior leadership, and Future Reimbursable Indirect Costs, among other expenditures.

Future Reimbursable Indirect Costs are excluded from Adjusted Earnings and Operating EBITDA. To provide comparable data analysis, the Company has also adjusted payments associated with Future Reimbursable Indirect Costs within Separation-related transaction costs and other payments. This adjustment is intended to provide insight into the Company's underlying business performance. For the three and twelve months ended December 31, 2025, the Company adjusted $11 million and $70 million, respectively associated with Future Reimbursable Indirect Costs within Separation-related transaction costs and other payments.

For the twelve months ended December 31, 2025, the Company paid $123 million in fees associated with the settlement of interest rate swaps related to the 2048 notes, representing the allocated of the fair value of the swaps at the time of settlement, and $21 million in fees associated with the debt exchange. A total of $124 million and $144 million were reflected in Separation-related transaction costs and other payments for the three and twelve month periods ended December 31, 2025, respectively, these amounts related to achieving the post Electronics Separation capital structure.

Additionally, $4 million and $16 million were reflected in Separation-related transaction costs and other payments for the three and twelve month periods ended December 31, 2025, respectively, for expenditures incurred to complete the physical separation of shared locations.

Finally, $9 million of restructuring and other separation payments to senior leadership were reflected in Separation-related transaction costs and other payments for the three and twelve month periods ended December 31, 2025. These payments were reflected in other cash payments as they related to the establishment of the post-spin leadership structure.
