BURLINGTON, N.C., April 30, 2026 – Labcorp Holdings Inc. (NYSE: LH), a global leader of innovative and comprehensive laboratory services, today announced results for the first quarter ended March 31, 2026 and updated full-year guidance.

“Labcorp delivered another quarter of strong results, with robust growth and double-digit Adjusted EPS growth driven by continued momentum across our Diagnostics and Central Laboratory businesses,” said Adam Schechter, Chairman and CEO of Labcorp. “Health systems, providers, consumers, and biopharmaceutical customers are increasingly turning to Labcorp as their partner of choice for their complex, innovative testing needs. Our investments in advanced technologies, including robotics and AI, are improving the customer experience and transforming the way we operate. Driven by continued progress across our strategic priorities, we are raising our full year Adjusted EPS guidance to $18.03 at the midpoint of the range, an increase of $0.13.”

Labcorp continues to advance its strategic priorities:

Be a partner of choice for health systems and regional and local laboratories:

- Announced a nationwide strategic collaboration with Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP) to expand access to cutting-edge diagnostics for pediatric patients.
- Completed the acquisition of select assets of Crouse Health’s Laboratory Alliance of Central New York and executed an agreement with Crouse Health to manage their inpatient labs.

Lead in specialty testing:

- Announced a collaboration with Illumina to expand access to advanced genomic testing in oncology to deliver more precise biomarker insights.
- Expanded nationwide access to the first FDA-approved companion diagnostic that helps identify patients with platinum-resistant ovarian cancer who may benefit from Merck’s KEYTRUDA® and KEYTRUDA QLEX™.
- Launched the Labcorp Fentanyl Visual Urine Test, an FDA-cleared rapid screening test that delivers results in just 10 minutes and assesses possible fentanyl exposure for up to 48 hours.

Shape our future through technology and innovation:

- Launched an AI-powered, real-world data platform with Amazon Web Services (AWS) and Datavant to accelerate Alzheimer’s research.
- Expanded a collaboration with PathAI to deploy AISight® Dx, an FDA-cleared digital pathology platform.
- Announced a collaboration with Optum.ai to apply AI capabilities to streamline laboratory operations, improve efficiency, and enhance the patient and provider experience.

Drive personalized health solutions:

- Grew Consumer Health and expanded the Labcorp OnDemand test portfolio with new tests for insulin resistance and pancreatic function, as well as customizable men’s and women’s health tests.
- In May, the company will launch MyLabcorp, a secure, AI-powered mobile app that brings an individual’s test results and health data together with clinical guidance to help consumers better understand their test results.

Labcorp also remains committed to a disciplined allocation of capital. In the first quarter of 2026, the company invested $202.2 million in acquisitions, repurchased $98.0 million of stock, and paid out $61.2 million in dividends. On April 9, 2026, the company announced a quarterly cash dividend of $0.72 per share of common stock, payable on June 11, 2026, to stockholders of record at the close of business on May 29, 2026.

Use of Adjusted Measures

The company has provided in this press release and accompanying tables “adjusted” financial information that has not been prepared in accordance with GAAP, including adjusted net income, adjusted EPS (or adjusted net income per share), adjusted operating income, adjusted operating margin, free cash flow, and certain segment information. The company believes these adjusted measures are useful to investors as a supplement to, but not as a substitute for, GAAP measures, in evaluating the company’s operational performance. The company further believes that the use of these non-GAAP financial measures provides an additional tool for investors in evaluating operating results and trends, and growth and shareholder returns, as well as in comparing the company’s financial results with the financial results of other companies. However, the company notes that these adjusted measures may be different from and not directly comparable to the measures presented by other companies. Reconciliations of these non-GAAP measures to the most comparable GAAP measures and an identification of the components that comprise “special items” used for certain adjusted financial information are included in the tables accompanying this press release.

The company today is providing an investor relations presentation with additional information on its business and operations, which is available in the investor relations section of the company's website at <https://ir.labcorp.com>. Analysts and investors are directed to the website to review this supplemental information.

A webcast discussing Labcorp's quarterly results will be held today at 9:00 a.m. ET and is available by accessing the Labcorp investor relations website and navigating to the “Events” section. Alternatively, the live webcast can be accessed on this link. This webcast will be archived and accessible for one year.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to, statements with respect to (i) the estimated 2026 guidance and related assumptions, (ii) the impact of various factors on operating and financial results, including global economic and market conditions on the company's businesses, operating results, cash flows and/or financial condition, (iii) future business strategies, (iv) expected savings, synergies and other benefits to the company, customers or patients from acquisitions and other transactions and partnerships, and (v) opportunities for future growth.

Each of the forward-looking statements is subject to change based on various important factors, many of which are beyond the company's control, including without limitation: (i) the failure to receive tax-free treatment with respect to the spin-off of the company's former Clinical Development and Commercialization Services business for U.S. federal income purposes; (ii) the impact of spin-off related items; (iii) personnel costs and potential difficulties with employee relations and retention; (iv) the trading price of the company's stock, competitive actions and other unforeseen changes and general uncertainties in the marketplace; (v) the impact of changes to existing or adoption of new laws and regulations applicable to the company, including healthcare reform, or changes to the interpretation and application of such laws and regulations; (vi) customer purchasing decisions, including changes in payer regulations or policies; (vii) adverse actions of governmental and third-party payers; (viii) changes in testing guidelines or recommendations; (ix) the impact of global geopolitical events; (x) the effect of public opinion on the company's reputation; (xi) adverse results in material litigation matters; (xii) failure to maintain or develop customer relationships; (xiii) the company's ability to develop or acquire new products and adapt to technological changes; (xiv) failure of the company's information technology, systems, or data security; (xv) the impact of potential losses under repurchase agreements; (xvi) adverse weather conditions; (xvii) the number of revenue days in a financial period; (xviii) inflation; (xix) increased competition; and (xx) the effect of exchange rate fluctuations. These factors, in some cases, have affected and in the future (together with other factors) could affect the company's ability to implement the company's business strategy, and actual results could differ materially from those suggested by these forward-looking statements. As a result, readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on any of the forward- looking statements.

The company has no obligation to provide any updates to these forward-looking statements even if its expectations change. All forward-looking statements are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement. Further information on potential factors, risks and uncertainties that could affect operating and financial results is included in the company's most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and subsequent Forms 10-Q, including in each case under the heading RISK FACTORS, and in the company's other filings with the SEC. The information in this press release should be read in conjunction with a review of the company's filings with the SEC including the information in the company's most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K, and subsequent Forms 10-Q, under the heading "MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS".
